

have fared better amidst a pack of wolves. There is a driveway fifty yards long leading from the jail to the intersection of Seventeenth and Harney streets. This is paved with gravel. Over this road the wretch was dragged by his ruthless captors. Since he had reached the door he had not spoken a word and in all probability by the time the street was reached he was dead. It mattered not that he was extinct. He must have, and over the trolley wire of the electric car line went the rope, one end of which had served to drag the doomed man from his cell. Then a hundred hands pulled and a hundred men surged back, and high above the street directly in front of the beautiful new theater swung the lifeless body of a man.

Not a shot was fired during the whole proceedings, the police recognizing the futility of such a course. The coroner at 2 a. m. taken charge of the body and will have it removed to the morgue.

M'NALLY'S PITIFUL SQUEAL.

The Convict Charges Supt. Harrington, of Jeffersonville, with Arson at Columbus, O.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
EVANSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 9.—One of the most noted burglars in the country was sentenced today to the penitentiary for five years, for house-breaking here in March. He assumes several aliases, among which are: William Lee, William Connell, William McNally, and Frank Lode. Today, after receiving his sentence, Lee walked over to the bench and handed Judge Richardson a written history of his life. He was convicted for burglary at Cleveland and was sent to the Columbus penitentiary for a year. His sentence expired last February.

Two years and a half ago Lee, alias McNally, was one of the best-known criminals in the country. He sprung a sensation in Ohio politics in connection with the famous tally-sheet forgery, in which Allen O. Mycra was mixed up. McNally was the man who was the intermediary which decided the thing. He says that because he has told these facts he has been persecuted relentlessly by the penitentiary authorities. Harrington is now connected with the southern penitentiary at Jeffersonville. When questioned about Harrington McNally said:

"I am afraid of Harrington. That fellow will kill me. He will load me down with unbearable work till I have to commit suicide. They are afraid of me because I know too much. I know I'm not an honest man, but I wouldn't have been had they not hounded me to death."

WIRE COMPANY IN TROUBLE.

Oliver & Roberts, of Pittsburgh, Ask Their Creditors for an Extension of Time.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 9.—The Oliver & Roberts Wire Company, one of the largest concerns of its kind in the country, made a request of its creditors today for an extension. The suspension was not wholly unexpected, as it was known the firm has been closely pressed for several weeks. The plant is located on the South Side, and employs a large force of men, boys and girls. When seen by George I. Oliver, president of the company, and that the suspension was caused primarily by the recent embarrassment of an iron firm of this city. The head of the firm held on their paper as inductor for a considerable amount. This paper is held by various Pittsburgh banks, and most of it matures during the next month. Under the circumstances, he said, the holders do not feel justified in renewing the paper without additional security, which they were unable to give. The only course open for them, therefore, was to call their creditors together, lay before them a statement of the company's affairs, and ask for an extension of time. Mr. Oliver stated further that the company's assets were largely in excess of the liabilities, and they expected to pay dollars for dollar with interest. The Iron and Steel Company is not involved in our embarrassment," said he, "and does not expect to ask for an extension."

It was learned from reliable authority to-night that the creditors will undoubtedly grant the firm an extension. The Oliver & Roberts Company, the Oliver Steel and Iron Company, the Hainworth Steel Company, and the Standard North and Bolt Company, are in no wise involved in the suspension of the Oliver & Roberts Company. They are entirely solvent, and abundantly able to meet all their obligations.

False Entry on a Banker's Books.

CLEVELAND, Pa., Oct. 9.—The preliminary hearing of President Dill, of the defunct banking institutions of Cleveland and Hontzdale, took place this afternoon. The examination of the books resulted in the discovery of a false entry of $12,000 to the credit of the defunct bank. The examination, the defense asked for time, and the hearing was continued until next Friday at 10 a. m. The Dill bank was a defunct bank of $200,000 to appear at that time. Another warrant was served, however, by Marshal Harris, charging Dill with embezzling $12,000 from the First National Bank of Cleveland, and he was required to give an additional bond of $20,000 before he could return to his home.

Other Business Troubles.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 9.—A. S. Mann & Co., dry-goods dealers, have failed for $100,000. The firm was one of the largest in the city, and the failure is a great surprise. W. B. M. Jordan is assigned.

St. Paul, Oct. 9.—I. V. D. Heard, a prominent attorney of this city, has assigned. Liabilities, $100,000; assets, $50,000.

DAILY WEATHER BULLETIN.

Local Forecasts.
For Indianapolis and vicinity: For the twenty-four hours ending 10 p. m. Oct. 9, 1891: Fair weather; nearly stationary temperature.

GENERAL INDICATIONS.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—Forecast till 8 p. m. Saturday:

For Ohio, Indiana and Illinois—Fair till Sunday; slightly warmer; variable winds.

The electric condition has moved from Nebraska to Indian Territory, and dominates the weather over the whole country, except in Florida, where a low area is approaching, another low area, central in the West Indies, is apparently moving northward to the Atlantic.

Temperatures—In the morning nearly freezing temperature prevailed west of the Mississippi; during the day the temperature is quite uniform and less is reported from the north.

Precipitation—Light rain fell at Memphis, Tenn., and in Florida.

Observations at Indianapolis.

Time. Bar. Ther. Rel. Hum. Wind. Weather. Prev. Max. Min. 10 a. m. 30.18 49 69 N. Wind. 10.00 7.0 20.0 40.0 60.0 80.0 100.0

The following is a comparative statement of the temperature and precipitation on Oct. 9:

Mean. Ten. Prev. Departure from normal. —3.0 —0.9 Excess or deficiency since Oct. 1. —14 —0.37 Excess or deficiency since Jan. 1. —230 —0.37

General Weather Conditions.

FRIDAY, Oct. 10, 8 p. m.

Pressure—High, but diminishing pressure prevails everywhere, except in the Northwest, where a low area is approaching, another low area, central in the West Indies, is apparently moving northward to the Atlantic.

Temperatures—In the morning nearly freezing temperature prevailed west of the Mississippi; during the day the temperature is quite uniform and less is reported from the north.

Precipitation—Light rain fell at Memphis, Tenn., and in Florida.

Development of the Tin Industry.

Philadelphia Inquirer.

No one in his senses could possibly think that a new industry could be established in thirty days. Go to the tin mine in the West. The wonder is that so very much has been done in so short a time. To develop mines requires a great deal of preliminary work. Machinery is necessary, and the mine has to be prepared for use, and as a usual thing mills for the manufacture of anything are not built in a day. Special machinery is necessary to roll the steel billets into the thinnest of sheets preparatory to being coated.

Plant. But in less than one year plants have been established, pig-iron is being shipped from the California mines. American steel is being rolled by American workmen and American labor is coating the American steel with American tin. It is useless to deny. Go to the tin mine in the West. That is convincing evidence in the eyes of all those who are so blind that they will not believe their own eyes.

TERRE HAUTE RACES ENDED.

Free-for-All Pace Won by Guy in the Fastest Seven Heats Ever Made.

Delmar's Record Lowered from 2:12 to 2:11 1/2—The Other Events Won by Tom, Walter E. Addie Haynes and Charleston.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Oct. 9.—The week's racing ended with darkness and with the best events of the week. The great event of the day was the free-for-all pace carried over from yesterday, in which the fastest seven heats ever gone in a race were made. Grant's Abdullah, that yesterday showed phenomenal speed, was a hot favorite, but Roy Wilkes took the first heat to-day and Guy, a sixteen-to-two shot horse, won the three last heats and the race, making a phenomenal finish in the third heat he won. In the undisciplined 221 trot, Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24 trot, in which Ben Davis was a hot favorite, selling in pools for $25; field, $15. Addie Haynes showed that she had inherited the staying qualities of her grand sire, Robert McGregor.

After the second heat of the 2:24 trot, Delmar, by Hambrino, went against his record (2:12) made last week in the third heat. Tom, who was also pleased, took the 2:15 trot sold: Junemont, $15; field, $25, the talent having faith in Walter E. There was a surprise in the 2:24